This photo shows workers at the Sian Electrical Condenser Plant in Shensi Province assembling the newly-manufactured 220kv condenser-type meter /transformer. Used for measuring and protecting high-tension lines, the transformer of this type hitherto has been imported from foreign countries. After more than a year of research and experiments, the technicians and the workers at this plant succeeded in the trial-manufacturing of this transformer in 1964.

Machine Industry...

This year, two automation lines began operation at the Dairen (Ta-lien) Electrical Machinery Plant. The photo shows one of them, the automatic assembly line for electric motors. After the completion of the two lines, the workers' work-load was greatly reduced and the assembling efficiency was increased by more than twofold.
